Health Professions

Advising Information Meeting

Fulton Chapel

Learn about the UM Health Professions Advising Office, and hear more about preparing to enter a health-related profession such as medicine, nursing or physical therapy. This meeting is open to students from all majors who are interested in any health-related profession, excluding pharmacy.

Veterans & Military Services (not ROTC)

Bryant 111

Ole Miss Veterans and Military Services is designed to enhance growth at Ole Miss by reaching out to veterans, service members and dependents, and provide them with assistance, advocacy and counseling while they obtain a degree at Ole Miss. Topics covered are VA and TA educational processes, services on campus, student veteran organizations and upcoming events for fall.

Haley Barbour Center for Manufacturing Excellence

CME Lobby

New CME student advising and meet and greet with staff.

1:35-2:20 p.m.

Respect the M: How to Maximize Your College Experience

Fulton Chapel

Learn to live the University of Mississippi Creed and how to be a responsible member of the Ole Miss Community during this interactive session led by the Office of the Dean of Students.

1:35-2:20 p.m.

Responsible Rebel/Respect the M Overview

The Inn at Ole Miss Ballroom

During this interactive session, representatives from the Office of Conflict Resolution and Student Conduct, University Police Department and Violence Prevention Office will share some of Ole Miss' cultural realities regarding alcohol/drug use and violence prevention. Topics covered include UM policies on alcohol; the Two-Strike/Minimum Sanction disciplinary policy; making appropriate choices and reducing harmful outcomes; bystander intervention, Title IX, and the importance of having a parent/student conversation after orientation about related behaviors before coming to college.

2:30-3:15 p.m.

Responsible Rebel

Fulton Chapel

During this interactive session, representatives from the Office of Conflict Resolution and Student Conduct, University Police Department and Violence Prevention Office will share some of Ole Miss' cultural realities regarding alcohol/drug use and violence prevention. Topics covered include UM policies on alcohol; the Two-Strike/Minimum Sanction disciplinary policy; making appropriate choices and reducing harmful outcomes; bystander intervention, Title IX, and the importance of having a parent/student conversation after orientation about related behaviors before coming to college.

2:30-3:20 p.m.

Ask the Experts: Orientation Leader Panel

The Inn at Ole Miss Ballroom

Year after year, this is another of our top rated sessions for parents. This session features a panel of several orientation leaders and gives you the chance to ask any questions you want about the student experience at Ole Miss. This is an uncensored panel, and you'll get the truth from our students about what life here is really like. It's fun, informative, eye-opening, and you'll be glad you went.

ORIENTATION DETAILS

- 3:15-3:30 p.m. Break
Fulton Chapel
- 3:25-4:15 p.m. Student Affairs Networking Reception
The Inn at Ole Miss Ballroom
Take this time to enjoy some refreshments while networking with other parents and guests and with representatives from departments across campus.
- 3:30-4:20 p.m. Student Panel
Fulton Chapel
Got questions for Ole Miss students? Want to hear about the REAL Ole Miss experience? Interested in learning how to get more involved? In this session, upper-class students will answer questions about involvement, leadership and service opportunities, and what it's like to be a student on campus.
- 4:20-5:10 p.m. Is It Really Time to Say Goodbye?
The Inn at Ole Miss Ballroom
This session offers advice on helping your students make a successful transition to college. Topics covered include tips on how to make those "difficult" conversations with your student go more smoothly and how to help your student make the transition from dependent living at home to life as an independent college student. Even if you have older students in college, this is a session you don't want to miss. This has been our top rated session by previous orientation parents.
- 4:30-5:15 p.m. Get Involved
Fulton Chapel
Campus involvement is critically important to your success as a student. Come learn about the many ways to be involved through our 250+ student organizations and the three Greek life councils. Representatives from the Office of the Dean of Students will share why students who are involved are better students (as in higher grades).
- 5:15-6:15 p.m. Dinner on the Grounds & Rebel Roundup
University Circle
Come enjoy dinner on the grounds as we dine under the majestic oaks in the Circle. Join Ole Miss students, faculty and staff for great food and conversation. During and after dinner, stop by some of the many tables set up by campus clubs and organizations, and find out how you can get involved at Ole Miss from day one!
- 6:15-7:15 p.m. Rebel to Rebel: Course Registration & Freshman Discussion Group No. 2
Fulton Chapel
Get back into your small group in the Circle, review the day, go over how to register for classes, and participate in some activities with other orientation leaders and their groups.
- 6:15-7:15 p.m. Double Decker Campus Tours
Lyceum Steps
- 7:30-9 p.m. Hotty Toddy Hangout
RH2 & RH3 Courtyard
Come enjoy a snow cone and music hosted by a DJ, and take some pictures in our photo booth. Even if you are not in the mood for a snow cone or pictures, this is a great way to socialize with the orientation leaders and new students.

DAY TWO

7-7:50 a.m.

Breakfast

Rebel Market (Paul B. Johnson Commons)

Breakfast is offered in the Rebel Market dining facility and features hot and continental options. Good food, great atmosphere and time to read the morning paper.

7:50 a.m.

Depart for Academic School Meetings

Quadrangle outside Rebel Market

8:05-9 a.m.

Academic School Meetings

(You will be escorted by the student orientation staff.)

This is your first opportunity to meet with officials from your academic school and hear about the academic requirements specific to your department. This includes the types of classes you need for your degree, number of hours required to graduate and the advising process.

9:15 a.m.-
12:30 p.m

Academic Advising & Course Registration

Various locations (Your advising time will be distributed at the end of the Hotty Toddy Hangout or breakfast.)

Academic advisers have been hand selected to work with students during orientation. Our advisers are specifically trained to work with new students to help them select the right type and number of classes toward a four-year graduation goal. Adviser meetings typically last about 30 minutes and may be conducted in a one-on-one or group setting. After advising, you will move to the next phase of orientation – class schedule input at Weir Hall or FedEx computer labs.

9:20-9:55 a.m.

Campus Networking Session A

Various locations – Please select one of the interest sessions below to attend.

Dining Services/Ole Miss Bookstore

Lamar 126

Getting to Know Your College Professors

Lamar 127

In this session, we will go way beyond "meeting your professors," which, when you think about it, is not much beyond a handshake and introduction. Come learn how to facilitate positive interaction between you and the most important contacts you will have in college. Come with questions, and be prepared to be asked questions as well. We will discuss faculty expectations, how to be successful in building relationships, and what YOU should expect and demand from your professors.

Career Center/Campus Employment

Lamar 129

Do you think the Career Center is a place for seniors seeking jobs? Well, you are right, but it offers much more. The Career Center works with freshmen too, helping them to discover their interests, choose a major and find a job or internship. Additionally, its staff helps build your resume and will even take you through mock interviews so that you are prepared when the actual interview day arrives. Come learn how to enhance your college experience with the Career Center professionals. It is no secret that many students at Ole Miss work. Come learn about the various opportunities to work on campus that you probably don't even know exist! Gain valuable experience, meet people, and earn spending money while you are here.

Our Creed

The University of Mississippi is a community of learning dedicated to nurturing excellence in intellectual inquiry and personal character in an open and diverse environment. As a voluntary member of this community:

- I believe in respect for the dignity of each person.
- I believe in fairness and civility.
- I believe in personal and professional integrity.
- I believe in academic honesty.
- I believe in academic freedom.
- I believe in good stewardship of our resources.
- I pledge to uphold these values and encourage others to follow my example.

Alma Mater

*Way down South in Mississippi
There's a spot that ever calls
Where among the hills enfolded
Stand old Alma Mater's halls
Where the trees lift high their branches
To the whispering Southern breeze
There Ole Miss is calling, calling
To our hearts fond memories.*
